Football Banquet Was Enjoyed By Barium Family December 2nd

Barium Springs football banquet was held on the night of December 2nd, and was like Homecoming Day as there were so many of the old-time Barium athletes present. A total of 170 sat down to a supper of regular old country steak and gravy, mashed potatoes, peas, scalloped oysters, topped off with ice cream.

Mr. Archie Calhoun presided as toastmaster and did it most effectively. He did not bring in too many jokes and all of his jokes were in perfectly good taste, not too old and not too new. Every guest had a very intimate tie-up with Barium Springs. They either lived here, worked here, had been to school here, or had done some special thing for us. There were enough boys of the famous 1941 football team to have almost made a team.

The letters were presented to the 90-pound team by Ed Oliver. Ed was famous as a midget and later on as a varsity player and, incidentally, had a big hand in the Barium Alumni victory over Mitchell College on Thanksgiving Day of this year. He is the boy who threw that long pass on the first play from scrimmage that resulted in a touchdown and victory for Barium.

Those receiving letters were: Albert Clough, Boyce Dean Smith, Charles Creech, Ronnie Hudgins, Franklin Lentz, David Morrison, Edsel McArthur, Neil Shaw, Bobby McEwen, David Thomas, and Gray Koontz. This team played two games during the year, both with Mount Airy. They won the first game 13-0 and the other was a scoreless tie. This team substituted liberally in the 100-pound team.

Letters to the 100-pound team were presented by LaFayette Donaldson. Donaldson was quite a football player and wrestler in his day, and still plays on the Alumni team every Thanksgiving. Boys receiving these letters were: James Andrews, Leroy Norman, Albert Clough, Donnie Campbell, Edsel McArthur, Wilbert Frazier, Robert Lee Hall, Charles Hall, Calvin Burleson, Donald Moore, Dwight Reid, Ennis Blackburn, Richard Vest, Jimmy Johnson. This team played four games as follows: Barium 13, Mount Airy 14. Barium 34, Mooresville Recreation Center 0. Barium 6, Mount Airy 2. Barium 18, Mooresville Recreation Center 14.

Letters to the Junior Varsity were presented by Reverend Charles Sides, not exactly an athlete, but most interested in athletics. This team, sometimes called the B team is made up mostly of 125-pound boys. The ones receiving letters were: Alfred Williams, Joe Barclay, Billy Black, Henry Troutman, Palmer Wilcox, James Wheeler, Melvin Morrison, Jerry Williams, Carl Spicer, Mack Wicker, Fred

New Heating Unit to Be Installed Here

However good a product may be it will wear out at last. That has happened to one of the boilers of our heating plant. We still have another one which is now carrying the load. It is greatly overloaded and must have help. Our best boiler has been in use over twenty years and has been overloaded most of that time.

After having consulted a competent engineer we are now making plans to purchase and install a two hundred horse power boiler. This has to be done whether we can afford it or not. The cost will be over $20,000.00.

Our steam lines service sixteen buildings and have been in the ground for thirty years. Extensive changes and repairs are needed and will be done next summer if the money can be found. By so doing we can add greatly to the comfort of some of our buildings and also effect considerable saving in our heating operations.

We call this to the attention of our friends at this season when income tax payments are just coming . Any help you can give us on this project will be greatly appreciated.

New Superintendent to Take Over Jan. 15

REV. ALBERT B. McCLURE

For many months now, ever since the resignation of Mr. J. B. Johnston was announced, the name of his successor has been anxiously awaited. As soon as the Regents announced that Rev. Albert Bonner McClure had been elected and had accepted the position as Superintendent of Presbyterian Orphans' Home, general approval and delight was manifested here at Presbyterian Orphans' Home and throughout the Synod. It is universally recognized that Mr. McClure is well fitted by experience, temperament, and gifts to fill this exacting office. Those who know Mr. McClure best feel that a wise selection has been made.

Mr. McClure was born in Toccoa, Georgia, forty four years ago. His father was William McClure and his mother Kate Heidt Bonner. He was married to Miss Mary McGehee of Atlanta, Ga., in 1935. The McClures have four children, three girls and one boy.

Mr. McClure graduated at Davidson College in 1931 with the degree of B. C. His theological training was at Union Theological Seminary in Virginia, where he received the degree of B. D.

While he has been greatly beloved by all his people where he has served, his ministry has been particularly successful with young people. For three years he was Secretary of the Y. M. C. A. at Davidson College, giving all his time to the spiritual needs the

The Message of the Month

By
REV. CHARLES H. SIDES

HOW DOES GOD SPEAK TO ME?

Does He speak to me at all? I know that not a day passes but that I speak to God. It is not always a formal prayer as in our Sunday services. Sometimes it is not even expressed, only an inner whisper of thanksgiving for some blessing. Sometimes a quick "God help me" in an hour of stress or a moment of temptation to be or to do less than God would wish. Yet each day I believe we do talk to God, often perhaps without realizing that that is what we are doing. And there are those special moments in the day that we pause for a word with God, sometimes at the beginning, sometimes at the close of the day.

But does God speak to me? Does it seem oftentimes that talking with God is a one-way conversation? Do we face a serious decision and ask God the way? Do we strain and listen and sometimes wonder if God is making any answer at all? Perhaps we do, and then in some sudden awareness of God's presence, we are startled that we could ever have thought God far away. Trouble had come upon us - a great sorrow, a terrible disappointment. We have felt that the waves of despair would cover us. And then we have whispered "God help me" and a marvelous peace and calm have come flooding over our souls. Maybe we did not hear God speak, maybe we could not make out any words and say,, "That was God who spoke." Yet we know it was God, and we know that God is ever near.

Still sometimes we are dissatisfied. We want to hear a voice thunder out from heaven that we cannot doubt that God is speaking. We read often in our Bibles how God spoke to men. They heard His voice clear and plain. There could be no doubt. Abraham was a very ordinary sort of man until that day that he heard God say, "Get thee out of thy country . . . unto a land that I will show thee." It was God who said those words and they remade the life of Abraham. It was that same God who one night appeared unto Isaac with the words, "Fear not, for I am with thee, and will bless thee."

Jacob slept with rocks as his pillow one strange night as in a dream God stood at the top of a great ladder leading into heaven and said in unmistakable tones, "I am the Lord God of Abraham thy father, and the God of Isaac." It was also in a dream that Joseph found God directing his way and his destiny.

Moses paused in awe and trembling before a strange little bush that burned and burned and yet would not be burned up. Until he heard God speak from that burning

ANNIE LOUISE COTTAGE

Hello Friends,

Christmas is one of the most enjoyable seasons of the year here at Barium. One of the things that we, here at Annie Louise Cottage, look forward to is going to Davidson College. The boys down there always treat us like little sisters, and it seems to us that they really go out of their way to show us such a wonderful time each year. For many of us, this will be our first trip, however, you can be sure that we will have a very nice time, and feel right at "home."

Many of us spent hours trying to make our "Santa Claus letters" readable. But in case some of our letters are not readable we are sure that you will understand. The first graders especially had a tough time, since very few of them know how to spell their name, much less write it.

The weather here at Barium hasn't as yet showed many signs of snow. Nevertheless, we have high hopes that it will be a "White Christmas." By the way, if any of you see Santa before Christmas please tell him not to get up in the North Pole and get snowed under before Christmas. If such a thing did happen, we are sure that his little "helpers" will take over, and we won't be disappointed.

All this talk about Christmas and not a thing about Thanksgiving! There are so many things a child here at Barium has to be thankful for. For instance, our friends in Belmont never fail to send us something to always make Thanksgiving one of pleasure. This year they sent us a big box of candy and chewing gum. Thanks so very much for it and you just can't imagine how good it is. Also we would like to thank the nice and generous people who sent us some nuts. Everyone at our cottage loves nuts, so our friends can be sure that we deeply appreciated them.

Carol Moore, one of our little girls will soon have a birthday. Her father came recently and left money enough for an ice cream treat to celebrate the occasion. Mr. Moore has two little girls at our cottage. And everytime one of them has a birthday, he leaves money for the whole cottage to celebrate. Mmmmm we surely wish birthdays came more often.

Many of our friends and relations have been to see us during the month of November and December. We are always glad to have them, and wish they could stay and visit longer.

Some of our Durham friends came on Thanksgiving day, and brought the Orphanage sixty-nine cakes. The church that they came from was the church that Clara, one of our big sisters goes to when she is home visiting her mother. Recently Clara and Bonnie went on a week-end and talked to her church about Barium. The girls must have done a good job judging from the cakes that came. We would surely like to thank them for sending the cakes and let us

Trophy Presented to Mr. Jos. B. Johnston

We the members of the 1949 football team would like to present Mr. Johnston with this trophy for his outstanding leadership in sports, not only here at Barium, but all over the state of North Carolina. In presenting this trophy to Mr. Johnston we know that it can not express our full appreciation for his outstanding leadership and activeness in our sports program here at Barium, but we would like for this to be a small token of our appreciation. With this trophy goes the love and admiration of the members of the entire football squad.

SQUAD HONORS JOHNSTON.—Barium Springs football players honored their retiring superintendent and No. 1 fan, Joseph B. Johnston, at the school's annual gridiron banquet recently when they presented him with a trophy which described him as "Champion Sportsman." Shown here presenting the trophy to the widely-known educational and athletic leader is Mason Traywick while Ray Clark looks on. Standing in the background are Barium footballers Mack Berryhill (almost obscured), Buddy Maples, Terrell Hall, Paul Barnes and Jay Terry. (Photo by Ralph Spencer.) Cut, Courtesy Charlotte Observer.

Serving the Child In Need

(From The Connie Maxwell)

"On what basis are children admitted at Connie Maxwell?" is a question frequently asked members of the staff. In view of the heavy demands being made now for the admission of children and the necessity for declining many, many requests for assistance, it is a question which deserves to be answered.

The basic principal underlying our policy of admission is simple and has been stated many times. It is briefly this: We seek to admit the most needy child who can profit by the service we are prepared to render. This is really the only sensible rule and the only thoroughly Christian rule by which to govern a program designed to make the largest permanent contribution to child life. With almost 150 needy children calling to us for assistance, and recognizing that we can accept for care only a very few of these, it is imperative that we make every effort to know thoroughly the exact situation of each one of these children, and then fill the few vacancies which may occur with those children whose situation seems to be the most desperate.

The Social Service Staff is in charge of all of the studies of the home conditions. It takes much time to go all about over the state, and gather, in a thorough manner, all of the information which may be useful in making a decision as to admission and which may be more useful in guiding the child's development after he is placed. But all of the time and bother and expense is justified when we remind ourselves that this is the only way we can be sure that we are giving a needy child what he is in most need of. What untold numbers of children have been placed in institutions who proved to be misfits, and the agony of a wrong placement could have been spared, had all of the facts been known. And doubtless many deserving children have been passed over because on the surface they seemed to be getting along pretty well, whereas a more thoroughly scientific study would have revealed an altogether different situation.

The Baptist people of the state have indicated over and over again that this is the only acceptable basis for policy. Occasionally some brother presents application in behalf of a child and urges favorable action because there is now no child under care from his church or association. We could not be at all sure that we were serving the most deserving children if we accepted them to give geographical balance. Or again, some friend claims preferred attention because his church is a heavy contributor to the children's Home. Here again we would be ashamed to claim leadership in a Christian institution and serve the child from the wealthiest community, while turning a deaf ear to the poor little fellow from some poor section who had no strong church to stand back of him.

Rare indeed have been the cases where strong pressure has been exerted to have some children given special favor or consideration because they had influential friends. Occasionally some person who does not fully understand the policy may organize sentiment and urge community pressure to be exerted in their behalf, but most people are reasonable when the facts are presented, and Connie Maxwell has been fortunate in having supporters who, by and large, trust the administration to be fair and conscientious in so serious a matter as passing on the children who shall be accepted for care. Not all institutions or agencies are so fortunate, and many of them are forced to succumb to pressure of a political type for fear they may lose money or supporters. We are in the business to serve needy children and every care is taken to determine the need on the basis of each individual child, and our action is then based on that fact.

bush, "the place whereon thou standest is holy ground." It was much later that the people gathered along with Moses before Mount Sinai were frightened one early morning as the thunder roared and the lightning flashed from a thick black cloud on the mountain top. And the fire from heaven flared and a thick rolling cloud of smoke enveloped the mountain as God spoke and an unearthly trumpet sounded before him. It was then that God spoke forth his commandments for men to follow.

Elijah heard God speak in a far quieter, simpler way. He had looked for his voice to sound forth in the mighty wind, and in the fire from heaven, and in the earthquake an on Mt. Sinai. But instead a still, small voice was to Elijah the voice of God.

Yes, the Bible gives countless examples of God speaking clearly and plainly to men of old. But He seldom speaks that way to us. We have never heard Him thunder forth from the mountaintop. Perhaps few have heard Him in a dream. None have stood before Him face to face and heard His thrilling, "I am the God of Abraham . . . " Not in these days at least have we heard Him so plainly. And yet I think that we cannot conclude from that God no longer speaks to man. For He does, and in terms that all may hear and understand. How does God speak to me? The writer of the 19th Psalm gives us the answer.

I. He speaks to me in all His creation.

It was long, long ago that a man sat in the early grey dawn of a morning perhaps like this one. Maybe he was looking out the window as the darkness faded into the dim light of the early morning. And perhaps he was wondering, "How does God speak to me?" And as the heavens brightened, and a rosy glow began to spread upward into the eastern sky, there came his answer - "The heavens declare the glory of God; and the firmament showeth his handiwork."

Still he sits there awed by the beauty of it all. The sky brightens, down near the horizon the rose colored haze becomes a more brilliant red. And then the sun, slowly at first, and then it seems more quickly, pushes its way above the trees and sheds its glow upon all the land. And to the man sitting there it is not just the same sun he has seen so often. It is a strong man rejoicing to run a race. And "his going forth is from the end of the heaven, and his circuit unto the ends of it: and there is nothing hid from the heat there of."

And in it all, God is speaking. He is saying to all who will listen, "This is my creation. This is but a sample of beauty and my grace and my power. Every day the sun witnesses to me, its creator. Every night the million stars proclaim that I am here. "For day unto day uttereth speech, and night unto night sheweth knowledge." And God is saying, "Here is a language all may understand, for in this my creation I am speaking to all men." "There is no speech nor language where there voice is not heard."

How does God speak to me? He speaks to me daily through all the beauty that He has created. Last summer a year ago I stood beneath the Natural Bridge in the Valley of Virginia. I had heard of its beauty. I had seen pictures of it. But when our group entered the gateway for the walk down to the Bridge I was somewhat skeptical. I thought it should be awfully good to be worth the price of the admission fee, which was quite large. None of us were prepared for what we were about to experience.

We walked out into the pathway beside the white, frothy, tumbling stream. Far above us towered the tremendous stone arch of the Natural Bridge. For a long moment no one spoke. And then only in whispering tones. Perhaps there were fifty people present from all over the United States, but all stood there quietly, hardly speaking, looking in awe at one of God's great wonders, sublime in its beauty. We heard no voice, but I know that God spoke to us that day. And as we looked through that stone arch into the brilliant blue heavens, we knew that "The heavens declare the glory of God; and the firmament sheweth His handiwork."

II. He speaks to me through His Word.

The writer of the 19th Psalm that early morning ceased to write for a moment and with a long, searching look into the heavens knew surely that God was there and speaking to him. But again he must have asked, "How else does God speak to me? And his eyes wandered away from the scene of morning freshness and beauty outside his window, and perhaps he saw there on a low table beside him the scrolls, the rolls of parchment that contained God's law, his written word. He opened a scroll and began to read here and there. And then he wrote, "The law of the Lord is perfect, converting the soul, the testimony of the Lord is sure, making wise the simple."

And as he thought about God's Word, he thought that here was the way God's truth was made known unto man. He thought how blind he would be and how blind all men would be without the light of God's wonderful Word. And again he wrote, "The statutes of the Lord are right, rejoicing the heart: the commandment of the Lord is pure, enlightening the eyes."

There flooded over his soul in that moment all that God's Word meant to Him, and he thought here is the most precious blessing in all the world. "More to be desired are they than gold, yea, than much fine gold: sweeter also than honey and the honeycomb. Moreover by them is thy servant: and in keeping of them there is great reward."

How does God speak to me? He speaks to me through His Word, the Bible. It is a way of speaking that God never forces on us. His voice and His message is there if we really want to hear it. If we are interested enough, if we care enough to open the pages and read, then we know surely that we shall hear the voice of God.

A book was written some years ago that has become familiar to most of us telling the story of the Mutiny on the Bounty. It was made into a thrilling motion picture. The sailors who mutinied sank their ship near Pitcairn Island. They were a rough ungodly crew and in a short time that little island was the scene of unrelieved sin and drunkenness. After a time only one of the white sailors who landed survived, surrounded by the descendants of the natives and the other mutineers. This one sailor though whose name was Alexander Smith discovered in one of the chests that had been taken off the ship years before a copy of the Bible.

He began to teach that Bible to those around him with the result that their lives were changed. Some years later a ship visited Pitcairn Island and found a thriving and prosperous community. There was no whiskey, there was no jail, there was no crime, there was no insane asylum. The Bible had changed the life of that entire island. So it has been down through the ages. For the "law of the Lord is perfect, converting the soul . . . the commandment of the Lord is pure, enlightening the eyes."

How does God speak to me? Does He speak to me at all Yes, God is waiting to speak to us each one if we will but listen. He speaks in every twinkle of a million stars at night. He speaks in the golden glow of every sunrise and the red hue of every sunset. He speaks in every bird that sings, in every refreshing shower that falls, in every beauty that He has created. But more than that He speaks through his Word the old, old story of love and life eternal for all who will believe. Will you listen to hear Him speak?

Basketball started a few weeks ago and we've only lost one game, that was to Celeste Henkel. We play Scotts and Oxford this week and we hope to win them both.

At our banquet we gave Mr. Johnston a trophy for good sportsmanship. Mr. Johnston told us it was his first one. We hate to see Mr. Johnston leave us. We all wish him the Merriest Christmas he's ever had.

Our Seventh and Eighth grades are looking forward to going to Davidson this year.

We want to congratulate Terrell Hall, Paul Barnes, Norvin Hillard, and Mason Traywick for receiving the highest football honors on our team this year. "Congratulation Boys."

BABY COTTAGE

Hi Folks,

Here we are again with so much excitement going on we just don't know where to begin.

All you can hear around the Baby Cottage now is, "I love Santa, I love Santa."

Our house mothers took Larry Joyner and Patricia Mobley for a walk as they are the babies who don't go to kindergarten and got two small Christmas trees for our playrooms but we are going to have a big one in our living room for Canta Claus to fill up! On the same day we went to get the small Christmas trees Santa appeared on the housetop. Little Larry went around saying to the boys who were in from kindergarten looking up into their faces saying, "Santa on housetop, Santa on housetop." My how he does love to ride his rocking horse while the other boys are gone. He and Mrs. Nelson went walking the other morning and came back with this big rocking horse. He is one proud baby of that horse.

We are all looking forward to going Christmas shopping which

THE ROPE OF LOVE

The Indian language is not easily subject to translation, but the following, appearing in the Missionary Review of the World, is the Indian version of the 23rd Psalm. See how human the old Psalm becomes.

The Great Father above is a Shepherd Chief, and I am His, and with Him I want not. He throws out to me a rope, and the name of the rope is Love. He draws me, and He draws me, and He draws me to where the grass is green, and the water is not dangerous, and I eat and lie down satisfied.

Sometimes my heart is very weak, and falls down, but He lifts it up again, and draws me into a good road. His name is wonderful. Sometimes it may be very soon, it may be longer, it may be a long, long time, He will draw me into a place between mountains. It is dark there, but I will not draw back; I will not be afraid, for it is in there between these mountains that the Shepherd Chief will meet me, and the hunger I have felt in my heart all through this life will be satisfied. Sometimes He makes the Love rope a whip, but afterwards He gives me a staff that I may lean on.

He spreads a table before me with all kinds of food. He puts His hand upon my head, and all "tired" is gone. My cup he fills it till it runs over.

What I will tell you is true, I lie not. These roads that are away ahead will stay with me through this life; and afterward I will go to live in the Big Tepee, and sit down with the Shepherd Chief forever. — Along The Way.

we are planning to go next week. It will be lots of fun and we hope to see Santa.

Three of us boys and four of our girls made a trip all the way down to Mooresville to a Circle meeting in November. We really did enjoy being there. And thanks a lot for the fruit and scissors you gave the girls and we have just cut dolls, houses and everything imageable. You should come up and see us sometime.

The Monday before Thanksgiving three boys and five girls made a trip all the way to Salisbury. We all sang songs and Pat Ross and Margaret Ramsey recited thirty questions of the Catechism and little Peggy Hinnant gave us a song about a wren.

Our Christmas party will beat them all given by the little girls December 14. Miss Richard was successful in planning a little program last year so she thought she would give another try this year. We little girls are so thrilled that we can't wait for our own party because we invited thirty five guests.

We are all waiting for that big morning December 25. We wish you could come to both parties but since you can't all come we wish you a Merry, Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

— From Your Babies

RUMPLE HALL

Greetings Folks,

Christmas is almost here and we can hardly wait until that day.

The weather is getting colder and we are all hoping for a white Christmas.

We are going to Davidson Friday night and the boys there are going to give us a party. We are all excited about it and are very grateful to the Davidson boys for inviting us again this year. We always have such a wonderful time there.

We are going to have our gift tree in the dining room on the night of the 21st, then we are going to the church to see a Christmas program entitled "The Shepherds Story".

Christmas presents are coming in every day now. We get out of school Friday week for our Christmas holidays.

We all got new dresses from the sewing room and they are very pretty. We can hardly wait to wear them.

Basketball season has started and we have played three games so far. After the holidays some of us hope to be on the Junior team.

Due to illness at home, our regular dining room matron, Mrs. Mitchell has been away from us for several weeks. We are all looking forward to having her back with us again. Helen Morgan, our big girl, is dining room matron while she is away.

Well so long until next time and Merry Christmas.

— Shirley Ann Cannon

young men of that institution. Since 1937 he has served pastorates at the First Presbyterian Church of Lincolnton and the Waldensian Presbyterian Church, Valdese, N. C.

Mr. McClure has been active in conferences for young people held by the Synod and Presbytery and has held official connection with them for several years.

The Community at Barium Springs is eagerly awaiting the coming of the McClures the middle of January and will gladly welcome them.

Football Banquet was

Feimster, Clyde Reid, Archie McMannen, Charles Faircloth, Dean Upton, Ami Lybrand, Cromer Curtis, Bobby McMannen, Jimmy Johnson.

This team played eight games as follows: Barium 27, Conover 0; Barium 27, O'Donoghue 6; Barium 39, Statesville 13; Barium 26, Mt. Airy 0; Barium 0, Mt. Airy 20; Barium 27, Charlotte Day School 0; Barium 31, Newton-Conover 6; Barium 36, Charlotte Optimists Junior 0.

The varsity letters were presented by Mr. J. B. Johnston and those receiving the letters are as follows: Bobby Whiting, Charles Stevens, Johnny Hudgins, Mason Traywick, Jo[illegible] Terry, Terrell Hall, Jimmy Williams, Mack Berryhill, Cecil Burleson, Paul Dellinger, Paul Barnes, Norvin Hillard, Buddy Maples, John Bullard, Donald Mitchell, Ray Clark.

One of the interesting things in connection with the awarding of letters to the varsity is the announcement of the various honors. These are by vote of the players on the team. Those elected this year are: Captain, Paul Barnes; Best Blocker, Terrell Hall; Best Tackler, Mason Traywick; Most Valuable, Norvin Hillard. The record for the varsity is games won 6. Lost 3. Tied 1.

At the conclusion of the banquet the football team gathered around the head table and presented a trophy to the retiring superintendent. This trophy is a beautiful thing. The presentation speech was made by Mason Traywick and the acceptance speech, of course, by Mr. J. B. Johnston. This was a complete surprise and his remarks were "from the top of his mind but from the bottom of his heart." One of the remarks made during the presentation of the letters was that the reason Mr. Johnston had remained at Barium so many years was that he would see a little boy on the 85-pound team showing so much talent that he could not make up his mind to leave Barium until he saw that boy playing on the varsity, and the process is still going on.
